

1 Praise God that record floodwaters in Thailand have abated, never endangering the homes of missionaries John and Esther Brewer and Janine Rembas. Pray as Janine recruits/trains volunteers to help lead Spotlight English Clubs via Skype. Pray also as local radio partners deal with flood-related issues and set up FM stations.	2 Give thanks for the International Leadership Team meetings in Accra, Ghana, in November. Also attending were new staff members Jon Fugler and Michael Springer from the HCJB Global Ministry Service Center. They worked on a video regarding the "Turn the Radios On" campaign to distribute fixed-tuned, SonSet® radios.	3 Pray for the development of the two-part Global Voice Institute training program set for Indonesia in March and October with courses on leadership and management for radio station managers. Pray also for the funding needed for this training to take place.	4 On this missionwide Day of Prayer, give thanks for the training opportunities emerging with new Asia Pacific partners. Praise God for the strong message of the gospel reaching hearts via radio. Thank the Lord for the many excellent partner radio programmers who are serving in the region.	5 Pray for resources needed to keep broadcasting the popular weekly radio program, "Beyond Words," that airs on 17 outlets across India with a potential audience of more than 25 million. Praise God for the listeners' positive spiritual responses to the program.	6/7 Mick & Heather Leggett, Bradford, U.K.: "Pray as Mick works with IT staff from other mission agencies to finalize the program for the International Conference on Computing and Mission in Europe (ICCM-EU) in the Netherlands Feb. 8-11. Give thanks that our daughter, Becky, 19, has adapted well to university life. Pray as our son, Reuben, 17, applies for university next fall." Mick serves as regional IT manager; Heather is the publicity coordinator at HCJB Global-UK.
8 Thank God for the trip that Steve Balzer took to Nepal in early November. He solved some technical issues with a local radio partner's studio and computer equipment.	9 Pray as Roger Basick leads radio training in Croatia this month. Pray for Mario Casni and the radio ministry that is beginning in the country. Praise the Lord for the volunteers who are excited to learn and grow in their radio skills.	10 Pray as César Cortez and Larry Buckman develop a community development ministry and training with the indigenous people of northwestern Brazil where they visited in November.	11 Pray as Czech missionaries Pavel and Klara Steiger prepare for various radio conferences. Praise the Lord for all He is doing through the partner radio ministry in Slovakia.	12 Continue to pray as Radio Station ELWA, operated by partner SIM in Monrovia, Liberia, recovers from a major fire in November that destroyed the ministry's studios. Praise God that as this publication was distributed, HCJB Global had raised more than $27,000 of its $35,000 goal in an online campaign to help pay for rebuilding efforts.	13/14 Martin and Ruth Harrison, Quito: "Pray as we and our children, Ben, 10, and Lottie, 8, go through a transition phase with all its associated emotions and logistical challenges as we relocate to the U.K. in June after having spent seven years in Latin America. Pray for an effective handover of our various responsibilities." Martin directs community development in the Latin America Region; Ruth is a representative for the region's educational ministries. http://latitude-zero.blogspot.com
15 Pray for Dutch missionaries Wim and Nienke de Groen of Latin Link and new HCJB Global missionaries Eric and Renee Fogg and their three children as they get settled in Ecuador. Pray as they adapt to the Latin American culture and help with clean water projects in the Amazon region.	16 Praise God for good meetings presenting Digital Radio Mondiale (DRM) to Ecuador's radio and television authority (Supertel) with invited guest speakers, including Don Spragg and Charlie Jacobson. Pray for the temporary import of DRM equipment from Elkhart, IN, to work in conjunction with Supertel's digital radio tests.	17 Pray as missionaries Jeff and Jackie Benedict have arrived in the Asia Pacific Region to spend a year serving as radio planters. A working visitor, Joseph, has also joined the team. Pray that he would have a great visit. Ask for guidance as he ponders the Lord's plans for his future.	18 Pray as Tannia Lascano, Allen Graham and Tim Dawson work with a radio station in Ecuador's Imbabura province to build a synergy of HCJB Global's ministries in radio training, community radio and health/hygiene teaching. A number of communities in that area have water systems built with help from the mission.	19 Praise the Lord for the chance to plant a fifth radio station with a local partner in Nepal in December. Pray that God would use the broadcasts to penetrate the local community and draw many to Himself. Radio is proving to be the right medium for connecting with individuals and making a difference in needy communities.	20/21 Len & Beth Kinzel, Quito: "Pray for strength as Len rebuilds a staff team at English Fellowship Church (EFC) and as we go global in our English language learning programs. Pray that Beth would have strength and creativity in the church's children's program." Len serves as the senior pastor at EFC; Beth is a nurse at Alliance Academy International. http://kinzelsinkeeto.blogspot.com

22 Pray as New Zealanders James and Jan Totton and Janice Reid begin new terms of service. The Tottons will serve in their home country while Janice has returned to the Asia Pacific Regional Office in Southeast Asia. Pray for complete healing of Janice's broken wrist.

23 Pray as Américo Saavedra and Dave Johnson facilitate the last four modules of Development Associates International's course on leadership for 30 missionary and national staff in Quito Jan. 23-26. The focus is on motivating personal excellence, forming new leaders, being part of a team and building accountability.

24 Pray as Graham Bulmer works on the foundational concepts on how to advance HCJB Global's educational ministries. Pray for wisdom as a task force has been formed to study the matter. Pray for God's clear guidance every step of the way.

25 Pray for strength and stamina as Adeline McCartney from the U.K. spends a month in the Sub-Saharan Africa Region, helping with water projects. Pray that she would be able to work effectively in various rural communities and that the teams would know the best ways to support her.

26 Praise the Lord for Daniel Dossmann's French radio programs and the nine stations that air them—four in France and five in Africa. Pray for more opportunities and connections to distribute these programs to even more stations.

27/28 Wayne and Norma Pederson, Colorado Springs, CO: "Pray as we feel overwhelmed by the immensity of the task and the great opportunities before the mission. Pray that God would give us specific wisdom regarding what to pursue and what not to do. We need God's guidance and vision for the future of the ministry." Wayne serves as president/chief executive officer.

29 Pray for God's leading as Carlos Pinto heads Corrientes during the absence of Earl Hartwig who is traveling on home ministry assignment with his wife, Cathy, and family. Corrientes is a program that trains Latin American missionaries for service in Asia and North Africa.

30 Pray as work continues with local partners to plant the first Christian radio station in the small West African country of Guinea-Bissau. Praise the Lord for recent opportunities to install stations in Niger and Cameroon.

31 Praise God for His continuing provision for HCJB Global-Australia's international broadcast facility in Kununurra. Give thanks for two new language programs that recently went on the air, beaming to South Asia and India. Pray for a technical producer and other skilled staff members needed for the studios in Melbourne.

Preview: February

1 On this missionwide Day of Prayer, uphold staff members in Ecuador who deal with changing government regulations. Praise God for the excellent report following an audit of the mission by the country's Social Security Administration. For example, the report indicated that the mission met its employment quota of handicapped personnel and provided excellent care.

2 Praise God for the 1,400 solar-powered, fixed-tuned SonSet® radios bound for countries such as Papua New Guinea, Solomon Islands, Tonga and Samoa.

3 Pray for the technical work involved in launching a Spanish youth Internet streaming service. Pray also as work continues on finding a way to distribute programs online to the ALAS Spanish radio satellite network while maintaining the sound quality as an alternative to satellite distribution.

4/5 Derrick & Lisa Jeffers, Colorado Springs, CO: "Pray that we'd be able to serve and love our fellow co-workers and those who we contact each day. Pray for resources to implement a new finance software package that meets our regional reporting needs and the requirements of our auditors." Derrick is executive director of finance at the Ministry Service Center; Lisa is the receptionist/mail clerk.

6 Pray for wisdom as applications arrive for the mission's summer internship programs. Pray for God to prepare the students' hearts as details are worked out.

7 Pray that the many physicians, nurses, technologists and other employees at Hospital Vozandes-Quito would reflect excellence in their profession and character through their communications and interpersonal relationships.

COLLECTIVE BARGAINING AGREEMENT SIGNED WITH EMPLOYEES IN ECUADOR

Praise the Lord for a collective bargaining agreement that was reached with the mission's Ecuadorian employees on Nov. 18. "We sensed God's presence through it all, and we rejoice with Him. We have a great staff, and we thank God for the people He has brought to HCJB Global," said Dan Shedd, director of the Latin America Region and chief financial officer.

NETWORK IN PAPUA NEW GUINEA RECEIVES FUNDING TO ADD 45 REPEATERS

Praise God for technical changes made at partner Wantok Radio Light in Papua New Guinea so all 15 of its repeaters are on the air using the newer satellite equipment. Give thanks for Wantok's recent sharathon that raised US$400,000. In addition, the country's Ministry of Finance gave US$1.8 million to the ministry. This will enable the partner to add another 45 repeaters, covering the entire nation with Christian broadcasts.

WORK TEAMS HELP WITH WATER PROJECTS IN 7 ECUADORIAN COMMUNITIES

Give thanks for the safety and productive ministry of the work teams that served recently in the Ecuadorian communities of Lirio San José, Yanacocha, Capulis Pungo, Dal Dal, Santa Rosa de Gaunán, Rancho Alto and Pigulca. In addition to helping with water systems, they led vacation Bible school events in each community. Praise the Lord for some recent donations from Germany and Canada toward these projects.
